

Contribution ID: 1023

Type: Poster

Inert Model and evolution of the Universe

We consider evolution of the Universe after EWSB leading to the present Inert phase, containing a SM-like Higgs boson and scalar dark particles among them a Dark Matter candidate. In particular we address the question, whether there is a possibility to have a sequence of the phase transitions instead of a single one leading directly from EW symmetric phase to the Inert one. The phenomenological consequences of various options will be discussed.

Primary authors: SOKOLOWSKA, Dorota (University of Warsaw); Prof. KRAWCZYK, Maria (University of Warsaw)

Co-authors: Prof. GINZBURG, Ilya (Novosibirsk U.); Dr KANISHEV, Konstantin (Novosibirsk U.)

Presenter: SOKOLOWSKA, Dorota (University of Warsaw)

Track Classification: 11 - Particle Astrophysics and Cosmology